UNLESS HOT TRAIL IS SOON STRUCK MEXICAN BANDIT CHASE WILL END

Calexico, Cal. Aug. 22.—Five United States army airplanes are in the air this morning in the territory adjacent to the Mexican border, searching for some trace of Second Lieuts. Frederick B. Waterhouse and C. H. Connelly of the border air patrol service, who have been missing since early Wednesday on a flight from Yuma to San Diego. No trace of the missing aviators had been found up to an early hour today.

By Chandler Sprague.
Marfa, Texas, Aug. 22.—Pursuit of the Mexican bandits who held up two army airmen for $15,000 ransom will be abandoned very soon unless the American cavalrymen strike a hot trail which promises immediate captures, it was announced here by Major General Joseph Dickman, commander of the Southern Department, U. S. A.

Major General Dickman, who was in Marfa, Texas, today, inspecting the troops and equipment, considers the aviation equipment here insufficient and had asked that it be doubled. Only six planes are here co-operating with the American expedition which consists of 300 mounted men and a pack train.

It was made plain that the chase of the Mexican outlaws will not stop because of any pressure from the Mexican authorities, but because the hunt would be regarded as hopeless unless the bandits are located within the next few days.

"We cannot continue the search forever," said Major General Dickman. Unless we strike a very hot trail within a short time our troops will come out of Mexico.

Major General Dickman expressed himself as completely satisfied with the way the search has been conducted and complimented Colonel George T. Langhorne upon the disposition of his troops.

"Everything is being done that can be done," said Major General Dickman. "I cannot speak too highly of the way Colonel Langhorne is handling the situation. If it is possible to apprehend the outlaws I am sure Colonel Langhorne will get them. This post is amply equipped and I shall make no recommendations for an increase in the number of troops or amount of equipment with the exception of the aviation outfit which I feel is not sufficient for the amount of patrolling done."

Six more airplanes are expected to arrive here upon recommendation of Major General Dickman. They will be used if needed; if not they will be held in reserve.

While the exact location of the troops of the Eighth cavalry who are searching for the outlaws is a military secret it is known they have penetrated considerable distance into Mexico. This is revealed by the fact that a large field for the planes established in Mexico on Wednesday is at least 30 miles from the border. Gasoline and supplies for the American machines are being rushed there from the base at Marfa to save the airmen the trouble of making a trip back to the United States to replenish their fuel.

Although the authorities in Mexico City apparently are opposed to the American expedition, the local Mexican officials show no opposition and are giving assistance to the Americans.

Major General Dickman is expected to leave for San Antonio by way of Del Rio tonight.

and A. J. Balfour, British foreign secretary, of the correctness of his position. The supreme council has already sent a note to the allied generals in Budapest acquainting them with the decision of the conference not to recognize any of the Hapsburgs.

American delegates denied Mr. Hoover's charge that delay in taking action against Archduke Joseph was due to Washington. Frank L. Polk, who succeeded Secretary Lansing on the delegation, has assumed full responsibility for the action of the American peace mission towards Hungary. The American delegates said that Washington had not been asked for instructions nor had the American attitude changed here.

Notification has been given, the American envoys said, that the United States will not recognize the Hapsburgs under any consideration. This, however, seems to conflict with previous intimations of the American delegation, that if it could be shown that Archduke Joseph really represented the Hungarian people he might be given a chance for representation at the conference.

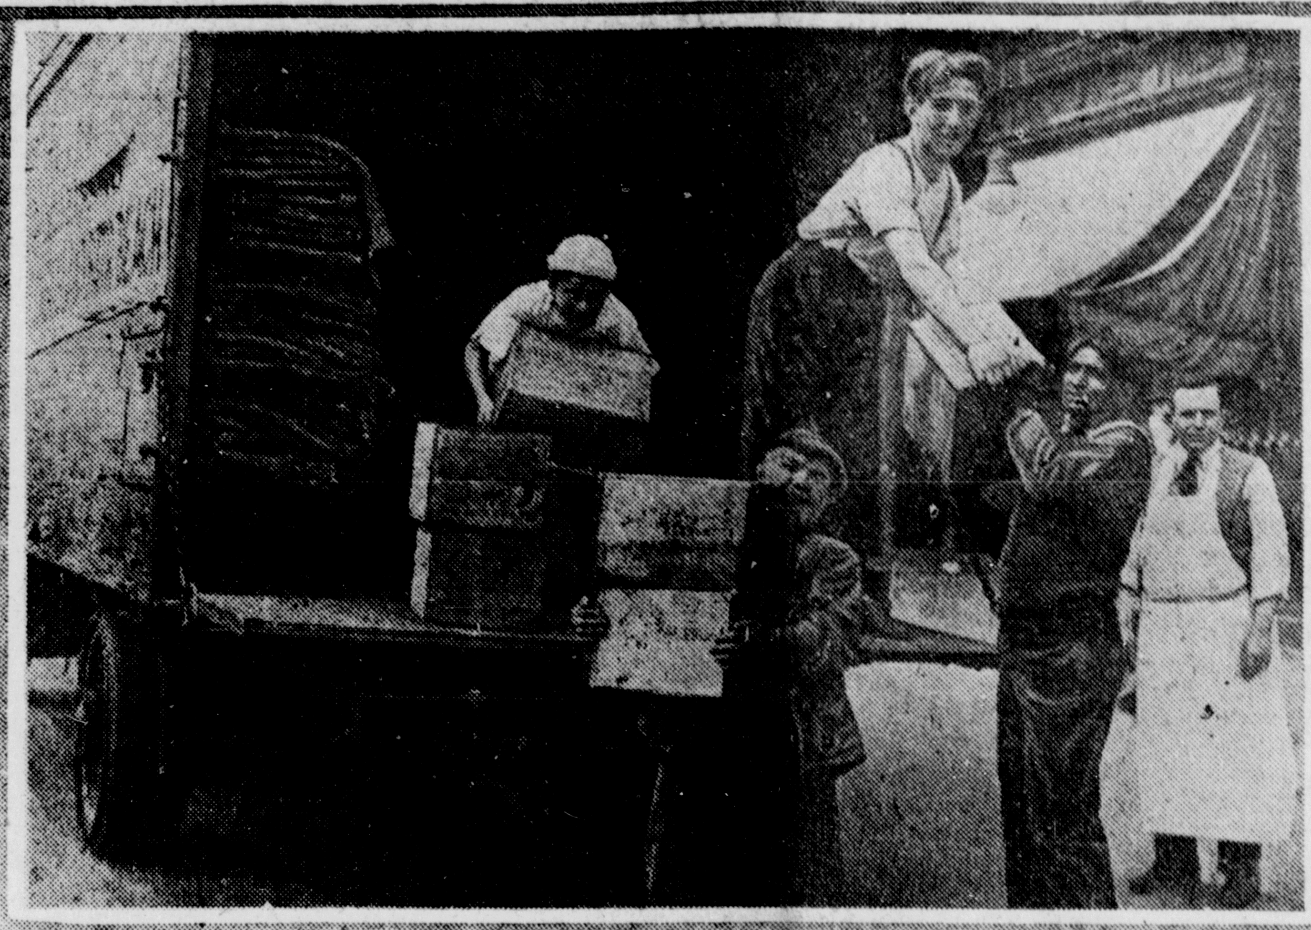

TERMS IN PEN FOR PROFITEERS IS CONSIDERED

Washington, Aug. 22.—Legislation sanctioning penitentiary terms for profiteers, big and little, in necessities of life was taken up by the house today.

With the idea of provoking as little debate as possible and to avoid contention in the house, the bill was reported by the agriculture committee so framed as to make as few changes as possible in the existing food control act. It simply provides that hoarders for profits and profiteers shall be subject to a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment for two years or both and extends the existing food control act so as to cover wearing apparel, fuel and fuel oils, fertilizers and fertilizer materials and food containers.

With this bill out of the way the house agriculture committee will rush consideration of a bill to control cold storage—a final emergency measure to meet the high cost of living evil is probable this legislation will take the form of limitation periods for storage and invocation of taxes to enforce its provisions. This plan has been urged in committee as the most expeditious way of getting results, a license system requiring time to get into working order, the members believe.

$6,600,000 WORTH OF ARMY FOOD DISTRIBUTED TO SALES STATIONS IN NEW YORK.

Begin distribution of Army food in New York

Forty-seven big motor trucks have begun the distribution of the $6,600,000 worth of army foodstuffs, purchased by New York City, to the sales stations at the public schools which have been selected as the distribution centers. Here is shown one of the huge trucks delivering the food at a sales station.

LANDLORD LETS TENANTS NAME OWN RENT RATES

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Introducing Max Baumgartner, of Chicago, landlord, who refuses to be classed as a profiteer and who is putting the question of rents for his apartments squarely up to his tenants—letting them fix their own rent rates—thereby satisfying themselves and keeping him out of the profiteering class.

The following letter sent by Baumgartner to each of his tenants presents his solution to the high cost of living:

"To my tenants:
"Dear Sirs—Having gone over the matter carefully I have come to the conclusion that the premises you are living in do not return me a sufficient income to insure me a fair return on my investment.

"In order not to be called a profiteer I will not raise your rent, but have decided to let the public decide what the flats are worth.

"Therefore I wish to inform you that I want possession of the premises not later than October 1, 1919. In the meantime I shall invite bids from responsible flat seekers and intend to rent to the highest responsible bidder. I realize that this procedure is unusual, but at present conditions are unusual, so I think it best for all concerned to let the public set the price of flats.

"In case you should not be one of the successful bidders I will pay for the removal of such coal as you have at present on hand, not to exceed $1 per ton."

Not a tenant has kicked so far on this offer, according to Baumgartner.

PRESIDENT MAY GREET PERSHING

Washington, Aug. 22.—When General John J. Pershing arrives in New York aboard the Mount Vernon either Sept. 9 or 10, he probably will be greeted by President Wilson.

It was stated at the White House today that if circumstances allow, the president in all probability will accord the commander of the American Expeditionary Forces this signal honor. The president was represented as keenly interested in the return of General Pershing and of the First division and as anxious to be among the first to welcome them to American soil. However, it was pointed out, his decision will hinge on future developments, especially with reference to progress made by the senate foreign relations committee with the peace treaty.

Plans for the president's western trip are still indefinite, White House officials said, although it was admitted that if conditions allow him to make the New York trip, there was a possibility that he might start west from there.

FARMERS AND CONSUMERS TO GET TOGETHER TO LOWER FOOD PRICES

Boston, Mass., Aug. 22.—A determined fight to force down the cost of living by establishing closer co-operation between the farmer and the consumer has begun in New England.

Under the name of the New England Farm and Food Foundation, with ample funds which they themselves have already pledged, prominent industrial leaders propose to rehabilitate agriculture in the district by injecting proper organization and distribution methods into the business of food production.

The waste of food products under present systems, congestion of certain products in one market while other centers are suffering from a scarcity of the same article and hoarding by profiteers are the particular evils upon which the foundation will center its efforts.

Co-operative buying will be introduced and sustained by every possible means: every short cut between farmer and buyer will be utilized. The foundation will assist and reinforce the efforts of such bodies as already exist along similar lines which in the past have been handicapped by lack of finances.

The New England farm, according to foundation's preliminary statement, has lost out in competition with other centers are suffering from a scientific methods applied to farming. Farmers have not been able to obtain the necessary credit, aids and facilities which are open to other forms of industry.

Another feature of the organization is its plan to assist young men, where possible, to obtain an agricultural education. By this and other means the foundation expects to attain its ultimate object—the bringing back into cultivation of the five million acres of land in New England which are now lying idle. The list of officers with the board of trustees of the Farm and Food Foundation is really a "Blue Book" of New England, business leaders. Reginald W. Bird, of Boston, is president of the foundation, while George A. Calliver of Holyoke, and Horace A. Mosses of Mittingue, are the vice-presidents. The treasurer of the foundation is G. W. Wheelwright of Boston. The foundation's secretary is John A. Sherley, of Boston.

BANDITS ROB TRAIN AND SEND ENGINE OFF ON WILD RUN

Columbia, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Four masked men yesterday held up and robbed the mail car on the Louisville and Nashville passenger train No. 7, when half way between Glendale and Culleoka, Tenn. The amount of booty obtained is not known, and cannot be ascertained until all the mail has been checked.

Train No. 7, a through "flyer" between Cincinnati and Montgomery, Ala., left Columbia seven minutes late. Two masked men boarded the engine before it left the Columbia yards, and soon "covered" the engineer and fireman with revolvers and ordered them to stop the train at a signal that would be flashed after the train left Glendale.

The signal appeared and after stopping the train the engineer, Joe Ray, pleaded for permission to blow the necessary signals to send the fireman to the rear of the train to flag any train that might be approaching from the North.

The masked men on the engine were joined by two others. The mail and express cars were detached and Ray was ordered to take them to Hancock Crossing, midway between Glendale and Culleoka. The express messengers and mail clerks were called out and "covered."

Without regard for other trains the engine was detached from the cars and the throttle pulled wide open and it was started on a wild run toward the South. It stopped north of Wales, 20 miles away because of lack of steam.

After rifling the mail the bandits ran to an automobile which was standing on a road near the scene of the robbery. The train crew walked to Culleoka and got in touch with the dispatcher's office at Columbia.

OATH OF OFFICE TAKEN BY GERMANY'S FIRST PRESIDENT

London, Aug. 22.—Unmarked by ceremony, Frederick Ebert took the oath of office as president of Germany under the new German constitution, said a news agency dispatch from Weimar today. The president made a speech, the keynote of which was that the vital principle of new Germany will be "freedom and right."

FOOD PRICES TAKE DROP IN COLUMBUS

Columbus, O., Aug. 22.—A favorable effect upon meat quotations here has resulted from the fight against the high cost of living. Within a week prices have dropped on steaks, roasts, bacon and boiling pieces. In some instances, the decline has been as great as 10 and 15 per cent. Vegetables are lower in some cases, sweet corn selling at 15 to 20 cents a dozen. Eggs have jumped a little, being quoted at from 45 to 50 cents.

SUGAR SALES ARE TO BE CONTROLLED

Washington, Aug. 22.—Active control of sugar prices has been resumed by the Government, through an agreement reached between the Department of Justice and the Food Administration that licenses will be revoked by the latter when it is shown dealers have been profiteering.

Sugar should reach the consumer at approximately eleven cents a pound, it was announced, based on the ownership of the entire domestic and Cuban crop by the United States Sugar Equalization Board, which is selling to refiners at $7.28 a ton.

PRELIMINARY STEPS ARE TAKEN FOR DEVELOPMENT OF AMERICAN MARINE

Washington, Aug. 22.—Preliminary steps toward the determination of a definite marine development policy for the United States were taken by the commerce committee of the senate yesterday, when it considered two widely varying plans.

The United States Shipping Board has presented a bill which would place the future development of the American merchant marine in the hands of the shipping board. This bill was drafted under the direction of Edward N. Hurley, former chairman.

Senator Jones of Washington, chairman of the commerce committee, has introduced a bill which would restore the merchant marine to individual citizens. Senator Jones' bill declares that it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States, until rates of ocean transportation become normal and generally competitive to place as practicable with American citizens the operation of merchant seagoing vessels. The bill would authorize the president to dispose of the ships built under the emergency legislation to American citizens.

The shipping board, would under its bill, maintain control of the merchant marine of the United States and would determine what ships were to be sold. Leases of ships by the board also is provided. The shipping board also wants legislation which would give priority to recorded mortgages on vessels over maritime liens, except liens for wages and salvage. It is maintained that this would offer better security for those who loan money and would stimulate ship building.

Exhaustive hearings will be held by the commerce committee, Senator Jones stated today that the bills before the committee are merely to afford a "basis for discussion" and that the future policy "is still in a very indefinite state."

PROSECUTION OF PROFITEERS IS BROUGHT TO HALT

Columbus, O., Aug. 22.—Prosecution of the six local food dealers arrested on charges alleging violation of the Ohio cold storage act, was temporarily halted yesterday after Municipal Judge Osborn fined Theo. Leonard, Jr., $500 and costs the maximum penalty under this act. The judge found Leonard guilty of selling food held in storage longer than permitted by the cold storage law. Leonard is the head of the Leonard Poultry company here. He has appealed from Judge Osborn's decree.

The indefinite postponement of the other five suits is for the purpose of permitting Leonard's case to reach the state supreme court in order to test the constitutionality of the Ohio cold storage act and to determine the validity of the contention by counsel for the defendants, that a technical state of war existing, state laws, including the cold storage act, is superseded by the federal food control act.

PALMER WANTS TEETH IN PROFITEERING LAW

Washington, D. C., August 22.—Attorney General Palmer's recommendations for "teeth" in the food control law to reach big and little profiteers, were yesterday accepted by the house agriculture committee and will be favorably reported to the house.

The amendments provide $5,000 fine or two years in prison, or both, for hoarders or profiteers in necessities of life and bring within the scope of the law wearing apparel, food containers, fertilizers and agricultural implements.

The committee decided to eliminate from the bill its exemption of retailers doing business of $100,000 or less and recommendations for price fixing by the federal government. These provisions had been objected to by Mr. Palmer as threatening the efficacy of the law and raising obstacles to its early passage by congress.

MISS VEDA HURLEY BECOMES BRIDE OF WILLIAM R. BEAL

Beneath an archway of ferns arranged on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents near New Burlington, the marriage service by which Miss Veda Hurley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hurley, became the bride of William Roscoe Beal, was solemnized at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, with the Rev. Mr. Wright, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at New Burlington, officiating. The wedding guests were seated on the lawn while the bridal pair, with the clergyman preceding them walked from the house to the bower where the service took place. The bridal march was played on the Victrola, which also furnished music throughout the evening.

The bride, who was unattended save by the bridegroom, wore a handsome robe of white georgette over satin, and her tulle veil was arranged in her hair with rose buds. She carried pink and white roses.

A wedding dinner in three courses was served following the nuptial ceremony. The bride's table in the dining room was in pink and white, the colors which were used throughout the house. BOOSTERS TO MAKE TRIP OVER GREENE COUNTY

As per pre-arranged schedule, the Booster's Trip, gotten up by the Booster's Committee headed by Clark Poland, for the purpose of advertising the Greene County Soldier's Home Coming Celebration, will leave from in front of the Court House at 4:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

More machines is now the cry of this committee as it is hoped to have as large a representation of people on the run-around as possible. Automobile owners who can spare their machines on that day are requested to be at the Court House at 4:30 as there will be plenty of people to take care of and all the machines that can be gotten together are needed.

The Moose Band will go on the run-around and give a concert in each of the cities of the county visited. Announcements concerning the celebration will also be made and advertising matter distributed. The route prepared takes in practically every town in the county and it is expected that the trip will stir up interest all over the county in the big celebration. So far all that is needed to make a good showing and assist in producing the desired effect, is more machines and machine owners are besought to volunteer the use of their automobiles on that occasion.

Committee members, owners of machines and others interested in the run-around are requested to be on time at 4:30 o'clock in front of the Court House in order to lose no time in getting started.

WHISKEY USED AS LURE TO LEAD MEN TO DESERTED HOUSE

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 22.—"The largest stock of whiskey in the state," was the lure that led four former saloonists to the cellar of a deserted farm house, 14 miles from Cleveland late yesterday where they were imprisoned and robbed of $8,000 in cash and valuable jewelry.

Charles Calabrese, 27, today faced four charges of robbery as a result of all night activities of the police following the escape of the four victims from their cellar prison. Police say that he was identified by the victims as the man who lured them to the robbers' hut. Police are seeking the five men who were secreted in the cellar and who actually held up the four men.

The hold-up victims were Frank Moskovitz and Joseph Furtos, 177 Miller street, Akron; Ernest Mueller, Lakewood and Ladislav, Poly, Cleveland. Moskovitz was the heaviest loser, having more than $3,500 cash on his person.

According to the story told the police, the four men were in conversation late yesterday in downtown hotel, when a smooth spoken stranger joined the group. After learning they had been in the liquor business, he invited them to visit the "largest stock of whiskey in the state."

Getting into a car they were taken into the wilds of Independence township to an abandoned house, a mile and a half from any other habitation. Entering the cellar of the house their guide first served beer and then asked them to enter an inner cellar where men confronted them with revolvers and after robbing them locked them in the cellar.

After an hour's effort they succeeded in forcing the door. The automobile in which they had been brought to the house was still outside and they were able to notify the police within a short time.

MAJOR EDMUNDS TO SPEAK AT THE HOME COMING

One of the most interesting announcements that has yet been made in connection with program for the Greene County Home Coming Celebration which is to be held in this

To Reduce Your Weight Quickly and Easily

If you are too fat, or if your figure has become flabby and you are carrying around a burden of annoying unhealthy flesh, the cause is, ten chances to one, lack of oxygen carrying power of the blood and faulty assimilation of the food. Too little of the food is being made into good hard tissue and muscle and too much into little globules of fat. Every man and woman reader of this paper who is too fat, whose flesh is soft and flabby should try the new preparation, Phynola, a simple, but remarkably efficient formula put up for convenient home use.

Go to Sayre & Hemphill today and get a box of these wonderful Phynola tablets; take one after each meal and one at bed time. They are pleasant to take, entirely safe and give splendid results quickly and easily. No dieting, strenuous exercising, drastic massaging or appliances. Just a simple Phynola tablet four times a day and in a short time your weight is reduced on all parts of the body to what it should be.

city on Monday, Sept. 1, Labor Day is the fact that Major W. P. Edmunds, who is now stationed at Camp Taylor, will be among the speakers.

The announcement that Major Edmunds will speak on that day is especially pleasing to former members of the 83rd, Division, or in particular Co. F, 330th Inf. over which outfit Major Edmunds was in command at Camp Sherman when he ranked as Captain. As Captain of F Company, Major Edmunds was beloved by all under his command and his treatment of the men under him led to the development in Company F, of one of the best Infantry units of the 83rd. After the Division went to France Major Edmunds was promoted to his Majorship and while he was not directly in command of F Company he was commander of the Battalion to which F company was assigned.

The announcement of Major Edmunds coming comes with the close of the speaking program by the committee which had that part of the arrangements in charge. Unfortunately Col. B. W. Hough, commanding officer of the 160th Infantry of the famous Rainbow Division, has another engagement on Labor Day and will be unable to be present although invited by the local committee.

Col. Ralph D. Cole, soldier and politician will speak and his address is looked forward to, for Col. Cole's former appearance here stamped him as one of the most interesting speakers who ever appeared here.

The address of welcome will be delivered by Dr. W. R. McChesney, President of Cedarville College and an excellent speaker. Dr. McChesney should be particularly interesting to the soldiers in whom he took a special interest.

There will be a compound interest in the appearance of Captain C. L. Darlington, who will give the response for the soldiers. It will be Captain Darlington's first public appearance here since his enlistment and term of service overseas and he will be warmly welcomed by Greene County's soldiers and citizenry.

An excellent musical program has also been arranged by the entertainment committee. The Xenia Glee Club an organization of colored melody makers, which has been winning success in a number of public appearances here, will sing during the after dinner program, and promises a variety of musical offerings that will warm the hearts of listeners.

Another special attraction has been secured in the person of J. Elmer Dean soloist from Springfield. Mr. Dean recently returned from service overseas, where he was in a number of battles, and before his term of enlistment he was on the Chautauqua circuit for a number of years. Mr. Dean has a strong voice well adapted to outdoor singing and his appearance here will greatly enhance the musical program already arranged for.

Music as far as the bands are concerned will hold sway all day long. Feeling a common interest in the all-county celebration, all the Bands in the county have announced that they are not only willing, but proud to take part in the welcome that is being arranged for the soldiers on that day.

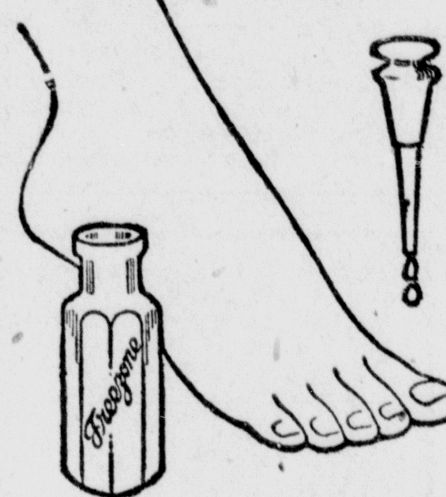

Besides the home-county organizations a huge Springfield band has been employed, this outfit, lacking interest in the affair from a personal point of view, being the only band that will be paid for its services.

Grease on Wallpaper.

To remove grease spots from wallpaper, sprinkle a piece of blotting paper with carbonate of soda and press it against the wall with a moderately hot iron. The blotting paper will absorb the grease, while the soda preserves the color of the paper.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

PESKY BED BUGS

A MILLION BEDBUGS. Just think, a 35c package of the new golden chemical P. D. Q. (Pesty Devils Quietus), is enough to make a quart and enough to kill a million bedbugs, no matter how large they may be, where they came from, their age, color or sex, and at the same leaves a coating on their eyes and prevents hatching.

CUT THIS OUT. This new chemical can be had at any first-class drug store. A 35-cent package makes a quart of P. D. Q. and will go farther than a barrel of old-fashioned bug killer. Don't let anybody impose upon your intelligence by offering you something else. Insist on what you ask for, then you'll have what doctors prescribe.

RULES FLEAS ON DOGS. It's fun to see the fleas drop off your pet dogs.

KILLS CHICKEN LICE. No use for your chickens to have lice. A 35c package mixed makes a gallon of chicken lice killer.

Your druggist has it, or can get it for you.

MOBILIZING "SOMEBODY."

The commonest saying in a dissatisfied community commences with the familiar phrase "Somebody ought to—" "Somebody" ought to do something about housing accommodations right here and right now in Xenia. Somebody ought to get to work to secure a park and public playgrounds. "Somebody" ought to study the freight schedules and shipping facilities and be able to tell us at a moments notice just what rate we should pay and what route we should use. Somebody ought to—do this, that and the other thousand and one things, which would make this a better Xenia, and ultimately a bigger Xenia—and in the long run a less expensive Xenia to live in.

Unfortunately, under existing conditions, the vague somebody is really nobody. The result is that these things aren't done.

You can't blame the city commission. It's work is administrative and it has its own problems constantly confronting it, without digging up new ones to solve. You can't blame the Xenia Business Men's Association for this association is, and always has been, small in membership and without funds to finance any comprehensive or continuous program for civic betterment. Although the officers of the Business Association have all served without compensation of any kind they have been able to do a number of things for the benefit of the city for which they are to be complimented, but they have been unable to do all the things that the public wishes done or thinks should be done.

And there are many things that somebody ought to do—a multitude of things worth doing, to make Xenia a better city. There have always been a multitude of such things that could have been done, if somebody had only responded to the call. And in these days of reconstruction, when we are dealing with new problems when new opportunities are dawning the multitude of things that somebody ought to do become a myriad.

Yet there is nobody, really, to do them. We have no machinery to take up the really big things that need attention. The Business Club has handled many small matters which could be handled by the officers and members in connection with their jobs which provide their bread and butter, but they have had no time to devote to the big things and no right minded person should expect them to devote all their time to public affairs.

It is to correct this condition of affairs that the Chamber of Commerce movement is being launched in Xenia.

The Chamber of Commerce does efficiently and successfully, as the records of many of America's most progressive cities show, the class of work which our Business Club, with very limited means at its disposal has been trying to do. It gets industries and helps develop those already in existence. But it is more than an industry getting proposition. It is an efficient well equipped organization for civic betterment. It represents the spirit of co-operation in its highest and most efficient sense.

Effort of any kind to get anywhere or accomplish anything must be directed and organized and must be continuous. Misdirected effort, blind effort, spasmodic effort merely wastes the energies of the individual and of the community.

Everyone who has given the matter the least thought will quickly realize that fact.

This realization has led to the growing movement for more efficient municipal government. Hence the introduction of the commission-manager system of government in many American cities, including Xenia. What the commission-manager form of government does in civic government the Chamber of Commerce aims to do in organizing voluntary efforts toward civic betterment.

Under the direction of D. E. Weigle and his corps of workers from the American City Bureau, Xenia will organize such a Chamber of Commerce and unless Xenia is different from other progressive cities of the United States, and no loyal Xenian will admit that it is, it will be a success here as it has been in other cities. It will put Xenia on the map as like organizations have put other cities on the map. Representatives of the American City Bureau just recently closed a campaign for a Chamber of Commerce at Niles, Ohio, a city of 11,000 and nearly 1,200 members were secured. This is the per capita Chamber of Commerce record for the United States. What Niles and other cities have done Xenia can and will do.

more pleasure for me to listen to a man sing than it is to a woman." "Thank you," I replied dryly. "Oh, don't get miffy; I always like to hear you sing. But it is different to hear a man—a young handsome man like Barrett Edmonds. He thrills me."

I changed the subject. Really I was becoming quite annoyed. Rose certainly was talking nonsense. She must be reading more novels than we did when we used to read together.

It was late before we went to sleep and so we remained in bed later than usual. After breakfast we took another ride and did a little shopping. Rose's father had supplied her liberally with money, and she spent it freely.

I wanted terribly to impress her still further by taking her to one of the smart restaurants to luncheon, but didn't dare. Everett was sure to hear I had been there with Mrs. Sloane and perhaps be angry altho he liked her and she was one of our set. He would be much more likely to be angry if I went with Rose, especially if we had no chaperon. Rose was just as young looking as I was, and he had told me that even if I were married I looked too young to go to such places unchaperoned.

When he said it I wondered if Leola had a chaperone when she was young? You see every single thing he objected to I wondered if it was because of Leola. I was obsessed with thoughts of her.

We spent the afternoon in the shops after we had lunched at home.

About 5 o'clock, just as we were dressing for dinner, the telephone rang and Barrett Edmonds asked us to go to a play.

For a moment I didn't know what to say. Then came the thought: "Leola would not hesitate—not if she wanted to go." And I wanted desperately to go. So I replied: "We will be delighted as we had made no plans for the evening."

After telling me he would call for us at 8 o'clock, he rung off and I flew into the guest room to tell Rose. "Isn't it wonderful that he likes me so well?" she said. "I think he is just splendid; and he must like me to ask us out with him tonight after spending the entire evening here last night. If you weren't married I might think it was you he was trying to please, but of course it couldn't be you. Young men don't pay attention to married women, unless it is because they are mixed up in business with their husbands."

I thought, "Perhaps they don't at home," but I said nothing. I didn't want to quarrel with Rose. She was my guest. But the way she appropriated Barrett was too silly. Why, he had scarcely seemed to look at her!

I took great pains with my toilet, as much as if Everett were going with me. I was very well satisfied when I had finished, and Rose too looked lovely. I felt glad to have her look so nice because she was visiting me, and I didn't know who would see us. But I would have been just as well pleased had she not been quite so attractive—because of Barrett.

This was all very childish, but I was little more than a child, altho I made pretense of being blase to Rose. Tomorrow—An Unpleasant Surprise Awaits Sandra.

CHAPTER XLVII.

At eleven o'clock I excused myself and ordered a little supper served. Oh, how I enjoyed it! I don't mean the supper, altho that was dainty and delicious, but the freedom—the feeling that I was doing as I wanted, just as Leola had done.

Yet in spite of my pleasurable evening, regardless of my being for once able to do as I pleased, even to wearing my hair, I had a distinct feeling of annoyance. I realized that Rose had been more than nice to Barrett—that she had made what we girls at home used to call "a dead set for him."

My wish that they would marry them vanished. It now seemed to me not desirable. I cannot explain why I felt this way; I made no attempt to analyze the change. And when Barrett left I was delighted that he held my hand longer than he did Rose's and seemed to feel more regret at parting with me than with her.

"Isn't he the dearest thing!" Rose exclaimed. "And didn't we have a perfectly lovely time? It is wonderful to be able to entertain as you can. Do you know if I knew him very well I should call him Barry. I think it just suits him."

"Call who 'Barry'?" I asked, pre-empting ignorance.

"Barrett Edmonds, of course. How long have you known him?"

"Almost ever since I have been married."

"I don't see how you have kept from falling in love with him. I couldn't have helped it. He is stunning. And such a coice! You sing very well together, but it is always

Hot Tea and Frozen Cream Very Constipating

THERE is little inclination for solid food on a hot day. Cold drinks and ices, salads and pastry form much of the diet, especially among women. This lack of wholesome variety, however, interferes with proper digestion.

The result is biliousness, listlessness, dizzy spells. The cause is constipation. The stomach could not digest nor the bowels pass off the day's strange mixture of food and drink.

A simple way of overcoming the trouble is this: If you have not already got Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house, go to a drug store and buy a 50c or $1 bottle. Take a teaspoonful tonight before you go to bed. It will act in the morning, and immediately thereafter your head will be clear and that feeling of oppression will be gone.

Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts on the stomach-muscles training them to do their work naturally so that medicines can be dispensed with. It is the most widely used laxative compound in the world. That means merit.

A free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

RETURN FROM A LAKE TRIP

The Misses Evelyn and Hazel McCray, Osce Burke, of Zimmerman, and Eva Miller, of Belmont, have just returned from a very delightful lake trip. They enjoyed a 700 mile cruise on Lakes Erie and Ontario and visited the following places of interest. Toledo, Put-in-Bay, Cedar Point, Cleveland, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Ontario, Queenstown, Lewiston, Toronto, Canada.

While in Toronto they visited the House of Representatives and were shown the extensive preparations being made to receive the Prince of Wales.

GIRLS ENJOY A DELIGHTFUL PICNIC

The Misses Reba Spahr and Jean Strong entertained a few of their classmates Wednesday at their homes near New Jasper. A delightful picnic dinner was served in the Spahr woods after which the party motored through the vicinity, finally returning to the Strong home, where dancing and games were enjoyed.

Two excellent readings were given by Miss Reba Spahr.

The girls ate an enjoyable supper and returned to Xenia a tired out bunch. Those present were, Misses Olivia Cost, Dorothy Morrison, Reba Anders, Sabina Ross, Eula Custis, Ada Hopping, Jean Strong and Reba Spahr.

"VERY THANKFUL FOR NERV-WORTH" SAYS JNO. GLENN

Care Taker of Schools Means to Keep the Tonic Always in His Medicine Chest.

Here is a signed statement given a few days ago by John Glenn who is employed by the Local School Board as caretaker and is well and favorably known to all:

Nerv-Worth Co.—With stomach trouble, nervousness and a heart that fluttered and so short of breath that after walking up a flight of stairs I would have to sit down and rest. I think I was in a bad way.

But three bottles of Nerv-Worth made all these ills go away. I am very thankful to Nerv-Worth for the good it has done me and I shall always keep Nerv-Worth in my medicine chest.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF SISTER

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Maurice Jones entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Downing, in honor of her sister, Miss Ada Irene Downing, at which time the engagement of Miss Downing to Mr. Edward C. Pottsmith, of Dayton, was announced. About a dozen of Miss Downing's girl friends were guests. An enjoyable evening was spent with games, and contests of a musical nature. The announcement was made through the working of a puzzle, the answer to it revealing the secret. Dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and mints were served, the colors used being pink and white. Favors were miniature bride's bouquets. This announcement will be of interest to the many friends of the young couple. Miss Downing is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Downing of East Second street. Mr. Pottsmith is well known in musical circles in Dayton and Xenia, being a violinist of great talent. He is also sales manager of the Dayton office of the Collier Publishing Co. The date for the approaching nuptials was not given at this time.

SURPRISE PARTY

A large number of friends gathered at the home of Fred Kennedy to remind him of his twenty second birthday. The evening was spent in contests and games. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those present were: Misses Lorena Harness, Florence Spahr, Margaret Keiter, Myrtle Bradstreet, Marie Hollingshead, Hester Harness, Clara Street, Cleo Jones, Nellie Neff, Addie Soward, Mattie Soward, Ruth Burrell, Dena Quary, Goldie Linkhart, Lena Darner, Bernice Gibson, Fern Wilkinson, Leitha Wilkinson, Ruth Thornton, Anna Kester, Rosella Harner, Ina Kennedy, Messrs Fred Pennewitt Earl Soward, Raymond Lackey, Clarence Lamme, Ora Camden, Alva Brickel.

NOISE IN EARS WAS LIKE BIG SWARM OF BEES

Zanesville man also got very dizzy, and had to hold on to something to keep from falling.

DRECO GAVE RELIEF.

"I had awful head noises, a roaring sound, and sometimes it sounded like a bee hive in my ears, and I hated to get in a real quiet place, because these noises got worse when alone," said Mr. D. C. Mourin, of 310 W. Main St., Zanesville, O., who has lived in this city for 68 years, and is highly respected citizen.

"I think these head noises came from catarrh, but I also had a very sluggish liver, for I had terrible dizzy spells. Got so every time I got out of a barber chair, I'd have to hold on to something to keep from falling, on account of the dizziness. My bowels were constipated; nerves all to pieces; had pains in my back and shoulders, and suffered every day with gas in my stomach and indigestion.

"I'm happy to relate I'm a great deal better since taking the new remedy, Dreco. That buzzing, roaring sound in my ears is almost gone. My bowels act freely every day. I have no more dizzy spells to annoy me, and the pains in my back and shoulders are entirely gone. I eat hearty meals and don't have that terrifying gas any longer, and my sleep is sound and refreshing. Dreco has helped me very much, and I gladly recommend it to our citizens."

Dreco, the new root and herb juice remedy has won fame for relieving catarrh of the head and stomach, overcoming kidney weakness, rousing a lazy liver, relieving rheumatism, purifying the blood and banishing constipation.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE MRS. SHAPPEE

The following obituary of Mrs. W. A. Shappee, former Xenia woman, who died at her home in Pasadena, Cal., August 7, was published in a Pasadena paper.

"Mrs. Hattie C. Shappee, wife of Dr. W. A. Shappee of 67 South Craig avenue, passed away yesterday, aged 75 years. She was a native of New York and had been a resident of Pasadena for three and a half years. She is survived by her husband, a sister, Miss Cora H. Close, a deaconess in the Elizabeth Gamble Deaconess Home, Cincinnati, Ohio; and her sister, Mrs. Ella H. Riggs, Elmira, N. Y., and one brother, Edward H. Close, of Nelson, Tioga County, Pa. In her younger days, Mrs. Shappee spent much of her time and strength in painting and teaching. In 1883 she was healed from an illness in answer to prayer when every indication was that she was past any possible hope of recovery. Since that time she devoted her time in season and out of season preaching the gospel by word and pen and tracts wherever she happened to be. A great many unfortunates of the underworld of every grade were uplifted by her untiring work. A multitude of friends will miss her words of warning and kindly advice.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mrs. Henry Dunkle and son have gone on an excursion to Niagara and Toronto.

Mr. Frank Connable came in from Chicago last night and is shaking hands with his numerous Xenia friends.

Mr. Pat Gillespie, of Fleming's drug store, left this morning for a week's visit at Urbana.

The Florence Hotel had 117 guests on Thursday night and it taxed even that hotel, large numbers of cots being provided.

The Rapid Transit Co., on Thursday carried about 3,500 people. As only one car was in operation and the seating capacity limited, this may be considered a record breaking feat.

Messrs Matt Kump and Frank Zartman went to Cincinnati this morning on a business trip.

Mr. Austin Patterson left this morning for Ashland, Va., where he will join a party of college friends from the Johns Hopkins University, and where they expect to engage in chemical work for the next six weeks.

TWO AUTOMOBILES DAMAGED IN COLLISION

Both machines were damaged but no one was injured when the Ford touring car belonging to H. H. Conklin of this city and driven by his grandson, Arthur Bales, collided with a machine owned and driven by William Fudge, of east of town, on the Jamestown pike at six o'clock Thursday evening.

The Conklin machine was coming towards Xenia and the Fudge car was traveling away from town, when the machines did not allow enough leeway for each other and collided head-on. Both machines were badly damaged, one wheel of the Conklin machine being knocked off and another smashed. Mr. and Mrs. Conklin and Mr. Bales were brought to Xenia in the machine of Dr. R. L. Moye.

The NEW EDISON

No Need to Change—Even Records of All Other Makes Sound More Human When Played on The New Edison.

WHEN you think of music—think of RE-CREATION. Let that word "RE-CREATION" burn into your memory. It represents a new standard—a new art in music. It means the imperishable "Re-Creation" in your own home of the living music of the masters—Re-Created with all the fleeting breath of reality.

Don't misunderstand. There is talking machine music—as ordinarily conceived—and there is a wonderful new art—the Re-Creation of Music. In that field the New Edison stands alone—a solitary, dominating figure. Other instruments are made only to reproduce music. The New Edison Re-Creates it. A small distinction in words but a tremendous one in performance.

In thousands of public tests it has been conclusively demonstrated that it is impossible to distinguish which is the New Edison and which is the living voice when the instrument and the artist are heard together. This direct comparison test is one test that no other phonograph manufacturer dares to make.

Close your eyes and the record in your home is the living artist singing. It is wonderful. It is true Re-Creation of music. Come and hear the art of the New Edison. It will be a revelation to you.

There is a wide range of Edison models. There is one to meet your need. Come and ask to hear it.

Miss Elsie De Wolfe, America's foremost interior decorator, after examining the new line of Edison Period Cabinets volunteered this unqualified endorsement of them:

"The Period Cabinets which Mr. Edison has adopted are in pleasant contrast to the rather grotesque cases one so frequently sees—the superior furniture value of the Edison cabinets can scarcely fail to impress the lover of good furniture."

And they will impress you. So come in today and see these beautiful cabinets—hear the marvelous music Re-Creations. Both will delight and surprise you.

NEW AUTO OWNED BY
C. A. WEAVER NEARLY
DESTROYED BY FIRE

Defective connection in the starting system is supposed to have caused a fire which might have destroyed the new sporting model Paige car belonging to C. A. Weaver, on Detroit street, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher were in the car when they noted the flames leaping up under the floor boards. A fire extinguisher was hastily carried from the office of the Gazette and Republican and taken in charge by Fred Baldwin, who happened near, and who subdued the flames in a few minutes with the extinguisher.

The starting system was ruined so that the car had to be pushed to a garage, but it was not otherwise damaged. The blaze broke out as the machine was in front of the Gazette and Republican office about eight o'clock. Mr. Weaver has had the car only a few days.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

"I entered a train and all of the seats were taken except one, and some one had left a handbag in that seat. Had I a right to remove the bag and take the seat?" asked Walter.

"Yes, you have a right" to do so, but most people who respect the prior claims of others would regard the seat as taken," answered his older brother.

AUTO WOULDN'T RUN AND WOULD-BE THIEVES ABANDON IT

Inability to start the engine, is believed to have caused the abandonment of a Ford delivery car belonging to Charles Scott and stolen from the garage in the rear of his home on East Main street some time Thursday night. The machine was found standing on Columbus street between Market and Church early Friday morning. The car thieves forced an entrance to the garage and ignored a Mitchell chummy roadster and a Buick Six in the garage, taking the Ford. Neighbors say they heard a noise of someone trying to start a machine at two o'clock Friday morning. The Ford is hard to start and it is believed that it was pushed to the point where it was found, and when it would not start the thieves abandoned it.

The matter was reported to the police by Mr. Scott Friday morning.

BLAMES THE WOMEN

Chicago, Aug. 22.—It's the fault of the skirts," indignantly declared Mrs. George Rasmussen, commenting this morning on the arrest of her husband, wealthy head of the George Rasmussen Tea Company, on the charge of being a "masher."

"I'm for my husband and I'm for the other men of Chicago. I can't blame them for looking at the girls with short skirts and everything like that. It's entirely the fault of the women. They make the men flirt."

When notified of her husband's arrest last night, Mrs. Rasmussen immediately prepared to arrange for his bail, but one of his male friends got to the Clark street police station first and secured Rasmussen's release. The maid of a striking actress was the complainant in the case, which, it was stated today, would be dropped.

Consider Your Children.

NORMALLY IT IS THE CHILDREN that count. They are the mainspring of adult existence. Upon them rests the burden of the future with all its glorious opportunities. The biggest problem of all is to properly equip them to successfully shoulder the responsibility to the end that life may hold a fair measure of enjoyment for them.

THE HOME OFTEN MAKES OR MARS THE CHILD. Environment moulds character in the young. Habits of neatness thrive best where POSSESSION reigns. THRIFT takes root and flourishes where economy rules. REFINEMENT becomes the habit of life in an atmosphere of the joint independence of personal possession.

LOOK AT THE PICTURE. It tells the whole story. The neat premises, kept so through the very pride of ownership. The mother at the door. The child, hurrying in glad welcome to the father who views with sub-conscious pride THE HOME OF HIS OWN.

IT'S WORTH THINKING ABOUT. It's worth struggling for. It more often than not means sacrifice in the beginning BUT IT'S WORTH SACRIFICE, paying golden dividends of content.

TAKE THIS SERIOUSLY TO HEART AND THINK ABOUT IT. Try to realize if you can what a wonderful measure of good will come to your children if you provide for them a HOME OF THEIR VERY OWN. Give them a chance.

TOMORROW NEVER COMES. If it is right to begin at all the time is now. Building materials cannot decline in cost soon. Precedent, as determined by the Civil War, show there to have been no lowering of costs in this regard for thirteen years. Home sites will never be any cheaper than NOW.

It is in all sincerity that we, as Building Material Dealers, lay these facts before you. We sell Lumber. Our facilities are of the best in this entire community. We can furnish you everything you need to build this Home of Your Own---and we urge you to act now for the reason that we believe in so doing you will save money.

UNLESS HOT TRAIL IS SOON STRUCK MEXICAN BANDIT CHASE WILL END

Calexico, Cal. Aug. 22—Five United States army airplanes are in the air this morning in the territory adjacent to the Mexican border, searching for some trace of Second Lieuts. Frederick B. Waterhouse and C. H. Connelly of the border air patrol service, who have been missing since early Wednesday on a flight from Yuma to San Diego. No trace of the missing aviators had been found up to an early hour today.

By Chandler Sprague.
Marfa, Texas, Aug. 22.—Pursuit of the Mexican bandits who held up two army airmen for $15,000 ransom will be abandoned very soon unless the American cavalrymen strike a hot trail which promises immediate captives, it was announced here by Major General Joseph Dickman, commander of the Southern Department, U. S. A.

Major General Dickman, who was in Marfa, today, inspecting the troops and equipment, considers the aviation equipment here insufficient and had asked that it be doubled. Only six planes are here co-operating with the American expedition which consists of 300 mounted men and a pack train.

It was made plain that the chase of the Mexican outlaws will not stop because of any pressure from the Mexican authorities, but because the hunt would be regarded as hopeless unless the bandits are located within the next few days.

"We cannot continue the search forever," said Major General Dickman. Unless we strike a very hot trail within a short time our troops will come out of Mexico.

Major General Dickman expressed himself as completely satisfied with the way the search has been conducted and complimented Colonel George T. Langhorne upon the disposition of his troops.

"Everything is being done that can be done," said Major General Dickman. "I cannot speak too highly of the way Colonel Langhorne is handling the situation. If it is possible to apprehend the outlaws I am sure Colonel Langhorne will get them. This post is amply equipped and I shall make no recommendations for an increase in the number of troops or amount of equipment with the exception of the aviation outfit which I feel is not sufficient for the amount of patrolling done."

Six more airplanes are expected to arrive here upon recommendation of Major General Dickman. They will be used if needed; if not they will be held in reserve.

While the exact location of the troops of the Eighth cavalry who are searching for the outlaws is a military secret it is known they have penetrated considerable distance into Mexico. This is revealed by the fact that a landing field for the planes established in Mexico on Wednesday is at least 30 miles from the border. Gasoline and supplies for the American machines are being rushed there from the base at Marfa to save the airmen the trouble of making a trip back to the United States to replenish their fuel.

Although the authorities in Mexico City apparently are opposed to the American expedition, the local Mexican officials show no opposition and are giving assistance to the Americans.

Major General Dickman is expected to leave for San Antonio by way of Del Rio tonight.

HOOVER HURLS BOMBSHELL INTO THE CONFERENCE

BY JOHN T. PARKERSON

Paris Aug. 22.—Herbert Hoover's urgent representations to the supreme council to depose Archduke Joseph as head of the Hungarian government to prevent the Hapsburgs from getting a foothold in the country, was today termed, "the most sensational bombshell which has been thrown into the peace conference since the departure of President Wilson."

It is understood that Mr. Hoover convinced both Premier Clemenceau

and A. J. Balfour, British foreign secretary, of the correctness of his position. The supreme council has already sent a note to the allied generals in Budapest acquainting them with the decision of the conference not to recognize any of the Hapsburgs.

American delegates denied Mr. Hoover's charge that delay in taking action against Archduke Joseph was due to Washington. Frank L. Polk, who succeeded Secretary Lansing on the delegation, has assumed full responsibility for the action of the American peace mission towards Hungary. The American delegates said that Washington had not been asked for instructions nor had the American attitude changed here.

Notification has been given, the American envoys said, that the United States will not recognize the Hapsburgs under any consideration. This, however, seems to conflict with previous intimations of the American delegation, that if it could be shown that Archduke Joseph really represented the Hungarian people he might be given a chance for representation at the conference.

TERMS IN PEN FOR PROFITEERS IS CONSIDERED

Washington, Aug. 22.—Legislation sanctioning penitentiary terms for profiteers, big and little, in necessities of life was taken up by the house today.

With the idea of provoking as little debate as possible and to avoid contention in the house, the bill was reported by the agriculture committee so framed as to make as few changes as possible in the existing food control act. It simply provides that offenders for profits and profiteers shall be subject to a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment for two years or both and extends the existing food control act so as to cover wearing apparel, fuel and fuel oils, fertilizers and fertilizer materials and food containers.

With this bill out of the way the house agriculture committee will rush consideration of a bill to control cold storage—a final emergency measure to meet the high cost of living evil which is probable this legislation will take the form of limitation periods for storage and invocation of taxes to enforce its provisions. This plan has been urged in committee as the most expeditious way of getting results, a license system requiring time to get filed into working order, the members believe.

$6,600,000 WORTH OF ARMY FOOD DISTRIBUTED TO SALES STATIONS IN NEW YORK.

Begin distribution of Army food in New York

Forty-seven big motor trucks have begun the distribution of the $6,600,000 worth of army foodstuffs, purchased by New York City, to the sales stations at the public schools which have been selected as the distribution centers. Here is shown one of the huge trucks delivering the food at a sales station.

LANDLORD LETS TENANTS NAME OWN RENT RATES

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Introducing Max Baumgartner, of Chicago, landlord, who refuses to be classed as a profiteer and who is putting the question of rents for his apartments squarely up to his tenants—letting them fix their own rent rates—thereby satisfying themselves and keeping him out of the profiteering class.

The following letter sent by Baumgartner to each of his tenants presents his solution to the high cost of living:

"To my tenants:
"Dear Sirs—Having gone over the matter carefully I have come to the conclusion that the premises you are living in do not return me a sufficient income to insure me a fair return on my investment.

"In order not to be called a profiteer I will not raise your rent, but have decided to let the public decide what the flats are worth.

"Therefore I wish to inform you that I want possession of the premises not later than October 1, 1919. In the meantime I shall invite bids from responsible flat seekers and intend to rent to the highest responsible bidder. I realize that this procedure is unusual, but at present conditions are unusual, so I think it best for all concerned to let the public set the price of flats.

"In case you should not be one of the successful bidders I will pay for the removal of such coal as you have at present on hand, not to exceed $1 per ton."

Not a tenant has kicked so far on this offer, according to Baumgartner.

PRESIDENT MAY GREET PERSHING

Washington, Aug. 22.—When General John J. Pershing arrives in New York aboard the Mount Vernon either Sept. 9 or 10, he probably will be greeted by President Wilson.

It was stated at the White House today that if circumstances allow, the president in all probability will be the commander of the American Expeditionary Forces this signal honor. The president was represented as keenly interested in the return of General Pershing and of the First division and as anxious to be among the first to welcome them to American soil. However, it was pointed out, his decision will hinge on future developments, especially with reference to progress made by the senate foreign relations committee with the peace treaty.

Plans for the president's western trip are still indefinite, White House officials said, although it was admitted that if conditions allow him to make the New York trip, there was a possibility that he might start west from there.

FARMERS AND CONSUMERS TO GET TOGETHER TO LOWER FOOD PRICES

Boston, Mass., Aug. 22.—A determined fight to force down the cost of living by establishing closer co-operation between the farmer and the consumer has begun in New England.

Under the name of the New England Farm and Food Foundation, with ample funds which they themselves have already pledged, prominent industrial leaders propose to rehabilitate agriculture in the district by injecting proper organization and distribution methods into the business of food production.

The waste of food products under present systems, congestion of certain products in one market while other centers are suffering from a scarcity of the same article and hoarding by profiteers are the particular evils upon which the foundation will center its efforts.

Co-operative buying will be introduced and sustained by every possible means: every short cut between farmer and buyer will be utilized. The foundation will assist and reinforce the efforts of such bodies as already exist along similar lines which in the past have been handicapped by lack of finances.

The New England farm, according to foundation's preliminary statement, has lost out in competition with other centers are suffering from a scientific methods applied to farming. Farmers have not been able to obtain the necessary credit, aids and facilities which are open to other forms of industry.

The foundation intends to remove these causes of the decline in agriculture by assisting the farmer to organize farmers' exchanges and such other approved agencies as may be found expedient. Paralleling the scientific methods of standardizing now employed in almost every industry, the farmer is to be aided in education along the lines of grading and standardizing the products of the farm. By eliminating long distance freight rates and the profit of the numerous go-betweens who now handle farm products the foundation hopes to make the consumer's dollar go much further in the purchase of agricultural products.

Another feature of the organization is its plan to assist young men, where possible, to obtain an agricultural education. By this and other means the foundation expects to attain its ultimate object—the bringing back into cultivation of the five million acres of land in New England which are now lying idle. The list of officers with the board of trustees of the Farm and Food Foundation is really a "Blue Book" of New England, business leaders. Reginald W. Bird, of Boston, is president of the foundation while George A. Calliver of Holyoke, and Horace A. Mosses of Milton, are the vice-presidents. The treasurer of the foundation is G. W. Wheelwright of Boston. The foundation's secretary is John A. Sherley, of Boston.

BANDITS ROB TRAIN AND SEND ENGINE OFF ON WILD RUN

Columbia, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Four masked men yesterday held up and robbed the mail car on the Louisville and Nashville passenger train No. 7, when half way between Glendale and Culleoka, Tenn. The amount of booty obtained is not known, and cannot be ascertained until all the mail has been checked.

Train No. 7, a through "flyer" between Cincinnati and Montgomery, Ala., left Columbia seven minutes late. Two masked men boarded the engine before it left the Columbia yards, and soon "covered" the engineer and fireman with revolvers and ordered them to stop the train at a signal that would be flashed after the train left Glendale.

The signal appeared and after stopping the train the engineer, Joe Ray, pleaded for permission to blow the necessary signals to send the fireman to the rear of the train to flag any train that might be approaching from the North.

The masked men on the engine were joined by two others. The mail and express cars were detached and Ray was ordered to take them to Hancock Crossing, midway between Glendale and Culleoka. The express messengers and mail clerks were called out and "covered."

Without regard for other trains the engine was detached from the cars and the throttle pulled wide open and it was started on a wild run toward the South. It stopped north of Wales, 20 miles away because of lack of steam.

After rifling the mail the bandits ran to an automobile which was standing on a road near the scene of the robbery. The train crew walked to Culleoka and got in touch with the dispatcher's office at Columbia.

OATH OF OFFICE TAKEN BY GERMANY'S FIRST PRESIDENT

London, Aug. 22.—Unmarked by ceremony, Frederick Ebert took the oath of office as president of Germany under the new German constitution, said a news agency dispatch from Weimar today. The president made a speech, the keynote of which was that the vital principle of new Germany will be "freedom and right."

FOOD PRICES TAKE DROP IN COLUMBUS

Columbus, O., Aug. 22.—A favorable effect upon meat quotations here has resulted from the fight against the high cost of living. Within a week prices have dropped on steaks, roasts, bacon and boiling pieces. In some instances, the decline has been as great as 10 and 15 per cent. Vegetables are lower in some cases, sweet corn selling at 15 to 20 cents a dozen. Eggs have jumped a little, being quoted at from 45 to 50 cents.

SUGAR SALES ARE TO BE CONTROLLED

Washington, Aug. 22.—Active control of sugar prices has been resumed by the Government, through an agreement reached between the Department of Justice and the Food Administration that licenses will be revoked by the latter when it is shown dealers have been profiteering.

Sugar should reach the consumer at approximately eleven cents a pound, it was announced, based on the ownership of the entire domestic and Cuban crop by the United States Sugar Equalization Board, which is selling to refiners at $7.28 a ton.

PRELIMINARY STEPS ARE TAKEN FOR DEVELOPMENT OF AMERICAN MARINE

Washington, Aug. 22.—Preliminary steps toward the determination of a definite marine development policy for the United States were taken by the commerce committee of the senate yesterday, when it considered two widely varying plans.

The United States Shipping Board has presented a bill which would place the future development of the American merchant marine in the hands of the shipping board. This bill was drafted under the direction of Edward N. Hurley, former chairman.

Senator Jones of Washington, chairman of the commerce committee, has introduced a bill which would restore the merchant marine to individual citizens. Senator Jones' bill declares "that it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States, until rates of ocean transportation become normal and generally competitive to place as practicable with American citizens the operation of merchant seagoing vessels. The bill would authorize the president to dispose of the ships built under the emergency legislation to American citizens.

The shipping board, would under its bill, maintain control of the merchant marine of the United States and would determine what ships were to be sold. Leases of ships by the board also is provided. The shipping board also wants legislation which would give priority to recorded mortgages on vessels over maritime liens, except liens for wages and salvage. It is maintained that this would offer better security for those who loan money and would stimulate ship building.

Exhaustive hearings will be held by the commerce committee. Senator Jones stated today that the bills before the committee are merely to afford a "basis for discussion" and that the future policy "is still in a very indefinite state."

PROSECUTION OF PROFITEERS IS BROUGHT TO HALT

Columbus, O., Aug. 22.—Prosecution of the six local food dealers arrested on charges alleging violation of the Ohio cold storage act, was temporarily halted yesterday after Municipal Judge Osborn fined Theo. Leonard, Jr., $500 and costs the maximum penalty under this act. The judge found Leonard guilty of selling food held in storage longer than permitted by the cold storage law. Leonard is the head of the Leonard Poultry company here. He has appealed from Judge Osborn's decree.

The indefinite postponement of the other five suits is for the purpose of permitting Leonard's case to reach the state supreme court in order to test the constitutionality of the Ohio cold storage act and to determine the validity of the contention by counsel for the defendants, that a technical state of war existing, state laws, including the cold storage act, is superseded by the federal food control act.

PALMER WANTS TEETH IN PROFITEERING LAW

Washington, D. C., August 22.—Attorney General Palmer's recommendations for "teeth" in the food control law to reach big and little profiteers, were yesterday accepted by the house agriculture committee and will be favorably reported to the house.

The amendments provide $5,000 fine or two years in prison, or both, for hoarders or profiteers in necessities of life and bring within the scope of the law wearing apparel, food containers, fertilizers and agricultural implements.

The committee decided to eliminate from the bill its exemption of retailers doing business of $100,000 or less and recommendations for price fixing by the federal government. These provisions had been objected to by Mr. Palmer as threatening the efficacy of the law and raising obstacles to its early passage by congress.

LARGEST WOODEN SHIP SPONSORED BY INDIAN PRINCESS.

S.S. Snoqualmie and Mrs. Borst.

The recent launching of the "Snoqualmie," the world's largest wooden vessel, in the yards of the Puget Sound Bridge and Dredging Company, in Seattle, Wash., was attended by the entire tribe of Snoqualmie Indians. Mrs. Kate Borst, a princess of the Snoqualmie tribe, acted as sponsor for the vessel. This was probably the first time in American shipbuilding history that an Indian tribe, while often honored in the naming of a vessel, participated in the ceremonies of christening and launching.

Donald W. Fether

Donald W. Fether, the twenty-one-year old Cornell University student under charge of murder in connection with the disappearance of Miss Hazel Crance, of Ithaca, has been released from custody on a writ of habeas corpus. The girl disappeared on the night of July 19 while canoeing with Fether on Cayuga Lake. The youth was rescued and has declared the girl drowned when their canoe overturned. Fether, whose home is in Los Angeles, Cal., was closely guarded when he was released, as threats had been made by university students to give him a coat of tar and feathers. Grapplers are still dragging the lake for the body of Miss Crance.

Dangerous to Use Treatment for Only Temporary Relief.

There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages and other distasteful features. The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications.

MISS VEDA HURLEY BECOMES BRIDE OF WILLIAM R. BEAL

Beneath an archway of ferns arranged on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents near New Burlington, the marriage service by which Miss Veda Hurley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hurley, became the bride of William Roscoe Beal, was solemnized at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, with the Rev. Mr. Wright, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at New Burlington, officiating. The wedding guests were seated on the lawn while the bride and groom, with the clergyman preceding them walked from the house to the bower where the service took place. The bride, who was unattended save by the bridegroom, wore a handsome robe of white georgette over satin, and her tulle veil was arranged in her hair with rose buds. She carried pink and white roses.

A wedding dinner in three courses was served following the nuptial ceremony. The bride's table in the dining room was in pink and white, the colors which were used throughout the house. Centering the table was a crystal basket filled with pink and white roses and ferns. There were covers for Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Beal, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hurley, Mrs. Beal, the bridegroom's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Tracy, Mrs. E. H. Howland, Rev. and Mrs. Wright. The other guests were served throughout the house. There were 35 guests at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Beal started later in the evening on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, and other places in the east, the bride wearing away a tailored blue serge dress, with hat to match. They will make their home on the Beal farm near Mt. Tabor.

Mrs. Beal is a graduate of the New Burlington high school, and one of the popular girls of that vicinity. Mr. Beal is a very well known young man.

BOOSTERS TO MAKE TRIP OVER GREENE COUNTY

As per pre-arranged schedule, the Booster's Trip, gotten up by the Booster's Committee headed by Clark Poland, for the purpose of advertising the Greene County Soldier's Home Coming Celebration, will leave from in front of the Court House at 4:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

More machines is now the cry of this committee as it is hoped to have as large a representation of people on the run-around as possible. Automobile owners who can spare their machines on that day are requested to be at the Court House at 4:30 as there will be plenty of people to take care of and all the machines that can be gotten together are needed.

The Moose Band will go on the run-around and give a concert in each of the cities of the county visited. Announcements concerning the celebration will also be made, and advertising matter distributed. The route prepared takes in practically every town in the county and it is expected that the trip will stir up interest all over the county in the big celebration. So far all that is needed to make a good showing and assist in producing the desired effect, is more machines and machine owners are besought to volunteer the use of their automobiles on that occasion.

Committee members, owners of machines and others interested in the run-around are requested to be on time at 4:30 o'clock in front of the Court House in order to lose no time in getting started.

BULLETINS

San Diego, Aug. 22.—Second Lieutenants Frederick Waterhouse and C. H. Connelly, who were thought lost in Mexico, are reported safe in Lower California.

WHISKEY USED AS LURE TO LEAD MEN TO DESERTED HOUSE

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 22.—"The largest stock of whiskey in the state," was the lure that led four former saloonists to the cellar of a deserted farm house, 14 miles from Cleveland late yesterday where they were imprisoned and robbed of $8,000 in cash and valuable jewelry.

Charles Calabrese, 27, today faced four charges of robbery as a result of all night activities of the police following the escape of the four victims from their cellar prison. Police say that he was identified by the victims as the man who lured them to the robbers' hut. Police are seeking the five men who were secreted in the cellar and who actually held up the four men.

The hold-up victims were Frank Moskovitz and Joseph Furtos, 177 Miller street, Akron; Ernest Mueller, Lakewood and Ladislav Polya, Cleveland. Moskovitz was the heaviest loser, having more than $3,500 cash on his person.

According to the story told the police, the four men were in conversation late yesterday in downtown hotel, when a smooth spoken stranger joined the group. After learning they had been in the liquor business, he invited them to visit the "largest stock of whiskey in the state."

Getting into a car they were taken into the wilds of Independence township to an abandoned house, a mile and a half from any other habitation. Entering the cellar of the house their guide first served beer and then asked them to enter an inner cellar where men confronted them with revolvers and after robbing them locked them in the cellar.

After an hour's effort they succeeded in forcing the door. The automobile in which they had been brought to the house was still outside and they were able to notify the police within a short time.

city on Monday, Sept. 1, Labor Day is the fact that Major W. P. Edmunds, who is now stationed at Camp Taylor, will be among the speakers.

The announcement that Major Edmunds will speak on that day is especially pleasing to former members of the 83rd Division, or in particular Co. F, 330th Inf. over which outfit Major Edmunds was in command at Camp Sherman when he ranked as Captain. As Captain of F Company, Major Edmunds was beloved by all under his command and his treatment of the men under him led to the development in Company F, of one of the best Infantry units of the 83rd. After the Division went to France Major Edmunds was promoted to his Majorship and while he was not directly in command of F Company he was commander of the Battalion to which F company was assigned.

The announcement of Major Edmunds coming comes with the close of the speaking program by the committee which had that part of the arrangements in charge. Unfortunately Col. B. W. Hough, commanding officer of the 166th Infantry of the famous Rainbow Division, has another engagement on Labor Day and will be unable to be present although invited by the local committee.

Col. Ralph D. Cole, soldier and politician will speak and his address is looked forward to, for Col. Cole's former appearance here stamped him as one of the most interesting speakers who ever appeared here.

The address of welcome will be delivered by Dr. W. R. McChesney, President of Cedarville College and an excellent speaker. Dr. McChesney should be particularly interesting to the soldiers in whom he took a special interest.

There will be a compound interest in the appearance of Captain C. L. Darlington, who will give the response for the soldiers. It will be Captain Darlington's first public appearance here since his enlistment and term of service overseas and he will be warmly welcomed by Greene County's soldiers and citizenry.

An excellent musical program has also been arranged by the entertainment committee. The Xenia Glee Club an organization of colored melody makers, which has been winning success in a number of public appearances here, will sing during the after dinner program, and promises a variety of musical offerings that will warm the hearts of listeners.

Another special attraction has been secured in the person of J. Elmer Dean soloist from Springfield. Mr. Dean recently returned from service overseas, where he was in a number of battles, and before his term of enlistment he was on the Chautauqua circuit for a number of years. Mr. Dean has a strong voice well adapted to outdoor singing and his appearance here will greatly enhance the musical program already arranged for.

Music as far as the bands are concerned will hold sway all day long. Feeling a common interest in the all-county celebration, all the Bands in the county have announced that they are not only willing, but proud to take part in the welcome that is being arranged for the soldiers on that day.

Besides the home-county organizations a huge Springfield band has been employed, this outfit, lacking interest in the affair from a personal point of view, being the only band that will be paid for its services.

Grease on Wallpaper.

To remove grease spots from wallpaper, sprinkle a piece of blotting paper with carbonate of soda and press it against the wall with a moderately hot iron. The blotting paper will absorb the grease, while the soda preserves the color of the paper.

ONLY ONE THING NOW LACKING ---MONEY

I have doctored nine years for stomach and liver trouble and spent thousands of dollars, but instead of becoming cured of these ailments, my bloating and pains and attacks became worse. I was persuaded a year ago to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and have never suffered since taking the first dose. I wish I had the money back I spent for other medicine. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. PESKY BED BUGS

A MILLION BEDBUGS. Just think, a 35c package of the new golden chemical P. D. Q. (Pest Destroyer Quiescent), is enough to make a quart and enough to kill a million bedbugs, no matter how large they may be, whether they came from their eggs, color or sex, and at the same time leaves a coating on their eggs and prevents hatching.

CUTS OUT. This new chemical can be had at any first-class drug store. A 35-cent package makes a quart of P. D. Q. and will go farther than a barrel of old-fashioned bug killer. Don't let anybody impose upon your intelligence by offering you something else. Insist on what you ask for, then you'll have what doctors prescribe.

KILLS FLEAS ON DOGS. It's fun to see the fleas drop off your pet dog.

KILLS CHICKEN LICE. No use for your chickens to have lice. A 35c package mixed makes a gallon of chicken lice killer. Your druggist has it, or can get it for you.

MOBILIZING "SOMEBODY."

The commonest saying in a dissatisfied community commences with the familiar phrase "Somebody ought to—" "Somebody" ought to do something about housing accommodations right here and right now in Xenia. Somebody ought to get to work to secure a park and public playgrounds. "Somebody" ought to study the freight schedules and shipping facilities and be able to tell us at a moments notice just what rate we should pay and what route we should use. Somebody ought to—do this, that and the other thousand and one things, which would make this a better Xenia, and ultimately a bigger Xenia—and in the long run a less expensive Xenia to live in.

Unfortunately, under existing conditions, the vague somebody is really nobody. The result is that these things aren't done.

You can't blame the city commission. It's work is administrative and it has its own problems constantly confronting it, without digging up new ones to solve. You can't blame the Xenia Business Men's Association for this association is, and always has been, small in membership and without funds to finance any comprehensive or continuous program for civic betterment. Although the officers of the Business Association have all served without compensation of any kind they have been able to do a number of things for the benefit of the city for which they are to be complimented, but they have been unable to do all the things that the public wishes done or thinks should be done.

And there are many things that somebody ought to do—a multitude of things worth doing, to make Xenia a better city. There have always been a multitude of such things that could have been done, if somebody had only responded to the call. And in these days of reconstruction, when we are dealing with new problems when new opportunities are dawning the multitude of things that somebody ought to do become a myriad.

Yet there is nobody, really, to do them. We have no machinery to take up the really big things that need attention. The Business Club has handled many small matters which could be handled by the officers and members in connection with their jobs which provide their bread and butter, but they have had no time to devote to the big things and no right minded person should expect them to devote all their time to public affairs.

It is to correct this condition of affairs that the Chamber of Commerce movement is being launched in Xenia.

The Chamber of Commerce does efficiently and successfully, as the records of many of America's most progressive cities show, the class of work which our Business Club, with very limited means at its disposal has been trying to do. It gets industries and helps develop those already in existence. But it is more than an industry getting proposition. It is an efficient well equipped organization for civic betterment. It represents the spirit of co-operation in its highest and most efficient sense.

Effort of any kind to get anywhere or accomplish anything must be directed and organized and must be continuous. Misdirected effort, blind effort, spasmodic effort merely wastes the energies of the individual and of the community.

Everyone who has given the matter the least thought will quickly realize that fact.

This realization has led to the growing movement for more efficient municipal government. Hence the introduction of the commission-manager system of government in many American cities, including Xenia. What the commission-manager form of government does in civic government the Chamber of Commerce aims to do in organizing voluntary efforts toward civic betterment.

Under the direction of D. E. Weigle and his corps of workers from the American City Bureau, Xenia will organize such a Chamber of Commerce and unless Xenia is different from other progressive cities of the United States, and no loyal Xenian will admit that it is, it will be a success here as it has been in other cities. It will put Xenia on the map as like organizations have put other cities on the map. Representatives of the American City Bureau just recently closed a campaign for a Chamber of Commerce at Niles, Ohio, a city of 11,000 and nearly 1,200 members were secured. This is the per capita Chamber of Commerce record for the United States. What Niles and other cities have done Xenia can and will do.

The Chamber of Commerce is going to mobilize the vague, intangible "Somebody" by enlisting "Everybody"—and then the things that ought to be done will be done.—C. F. R.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

CHAPTER XLVII.

At eleven o'clock I excused myself and ordered a little superb served. Oh, how I enjoyed it! I don't mean the supper, although that was dainty and delicious, but the freedom—the feeling that I was doing as I wanted, just as Leola had done.

Yet in spite of my pleasurable evening, regardless of my being for once able to do as I pleased, even to wearing my hair, I had a distinct feeling of annoyance. I realized that Rose had been more than nice to Barrett—that she had made what we girls at home used to call "a dead set for him."

My wish that they would marry them vanished. It now seemed to me not desirable. I cannot explain why I felt this way; I made no attempt to analyze the change. And when Barrett left I was delighted that he held my hand longer than he did Rose's and seemed to feel more regret at parting with me than with her.

"Isn't he the dearest thing!" Rose exclaimed. "And didn't we have a perfectly lovely time? It is wonderful to be able to entertain as you can. Do you know if I knew him very well I should call him Barry. I think it just suits him."

"Call who 'Barry'?" I asked, pretending ignorance.

"Barrett Edmonds, of course. How long have you known him?"

"Almost ever since I have been married."

"I don't see how you have kept from falling in love with him. I couldn't have helped it. He is stunning. And such a coice! You sing very well together, but it is always more pleasure for me to listen to a man sing than it is to a woman." "Thank you," I replied dryly. "Oh, don't get miffy; I always like to hear you sing. But it is different to hear a man—a young handsome man like Barrett Edmonds. He thrills one."

I changed the subject. Really I was becoming quite annoyed. Rose certainly was talking nonsense. She must be reading more novels than we did when we used to read together.

It was late before we went to sleep and so we remained in bed later than usual. After breakfast we took another ride and did a little shopping. Rose's father had supplied her liberally with money, and she spent it freely.

I wanted terribly to impress, her still further by taking her to one of the smart restaurants to luncheon, but didn't dare. Everett was sure to hear I had been there with Mrs. Sloane and perhaps he was angry although he liked her and she was one of our set. He would be much more likely to hear if I went with Rose, especially if we had no chaperon. Rose was just as young looking as I was, and he had told me that even if I were married I looked too young to go to such places unchaperoned.

When he said I wondered if Leola had a chaperone when she was young? You see every single thing he objected to I wondered if it was because of Leola. I was obsessed with thoughts of her.

We spent the afternoon in the shops, after we had lunched at home. About 5 o'clock, just as we were dressing for dinner, the telephone rang and Barrett Edmonds asked us to go to a play.

For a moment I didn't know what to say. Then came the thought: "Leola would not hesitate—not if she wanted to go." And I wanted desperately to go. So I replied:

"We will be delighted as we had made no plans for the evening."

After telling me he would call for us at 8 o'clock, he rung off and I flew into the guest room to tell Rose.

"Isn't it wonderful that he likes me so well!" she said. "I think he is just splendid; and he must like me to ask us out with him tonight after spending the entire evening here last night. If you weren't married I might think it was you he was trying to please, but of course it couldn't be you. Young men don't pay attention to married women, unless it is because they are mixed up in business with their husbands."

I thought "Perhaps they don't at home," but I said nothing. I didn't want to quarrel with Rose. She was my guest. But the way she appropriated Barrett was too silly. Why, he had scarcely seemed to look at her!

I took great pains with my toilet, as much as if Everett were going with me. I was very well satisfied when I had finished, and Rose too looked lovely. I felt glad to have her look so nice because she was visiting me, and I didn't know who would see us. But I would have been just as well pleased had she not been quite so attractive—because of Barrett.

This was all very childish, but I was little more than a child, although I made pretense of being blase to Rose. Tomorrow—An Unpleasant Surprise Awaits Sandra.

Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies

Every true mother realizes the fact that her baby's health depends upon her own, that the very vitality of her child is influenced by her own physical condition. How important it is, therefore, to guard against any derangement of the female organs, which induce general weakness, nervousness, constant fatigue and utter inability to properly care for her child. Please remember, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and strength to thousands of such mothers.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, some days I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia. I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when 7 months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONTYHAN, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during and after maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hot Tea and Frozen Cream Very Constipating

THERE is little inclination for solid food on a hot day. Cold drinks and ices, salads and pastry form much of the diet, especially among women. This lack of wholesome variety, however, interferes with proper digestion.

The result is biliousness, listlessness, dizziness, spells. The cause is constipation. The stomach could not digest nor the bowels pass off the day's strange mixture of food and drink.

A simple way of overcoming the trouble is this: If you have not already got Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house, go to a drug store and buy a 50c or $1 bottle. Take a teaspoonful tonight before you go to bed. It will act in the morning, and immediately thereafter your head will be clear and that feeling of oppression will be gone.

Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts on the stomach-muscles training them to do their work naturally so that medicines can be dispensed with. It is the most widely used laxative compound in the world. That means merit.

A free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 460 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

A delightful picnic dinner was served in the Spahr woods after which the party motored through the vicinity, finally returning to the Strong home, where dancing and games were enjoyed.

Two excellent readings were given by Miss Reba Spahr.

The girls ate an enjoyable supper and returned to Xenia a tired but happy bunch. Those present were, Misses Olivia Cost, Dorothy Morrison, Reba Anders, Sabina Ross, Eula Custis, Ada Hopping, Jean Strong and Reba Spahr.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF SISTER

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Maurice Jones entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Downing, in honor of her sister, Miss Ada Irene Downing, at which time the engagement of Miss Downing to Mr. Edward C. Pottsmith, of Dayton, was announced. About a dozen of Miss Downing's girl friends were guests.

An enjoyable evening was spent with games, and contests of a musical nature. The announcement was made through the working of a puzzle, the answer to it revealing the secret.

Dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and mint were served, the colors used being pink and white. Favors were miniature bride's bouquets.

This announcement will be of interest to the many friends of the young couple. Miss Downing is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Downing of East Second street. Mr. Pottsmith is well known in musical circles in Dayton and Xenia, being a violinist of great talent. He is also sales manager of the Dayton office of the Collier Publishing Co.

The date for the approaching nuptials was not given at this time.

NOISE IN EARS WAS LIKE BIG SWARM OF BEES

Zanesville man also got very dizzy, and had to hold on to something to keep from falling.

DRECO GAVE RELIEF.

"I had awful head noises, a roaring sound, and sometimes it sounded like a bee hive in my ears, and I hated to get in a real quiet place, because these noises got worse when alone," said Mr. D. C. Mourin, of 310 W. Main St., Zanesville, O., who has lived in this city for 68 years, and is highly respected citizen.

"I think these head noises came from catarrh, but I also had a very sluggish liver, for I had terrible dizzy spells. Got so every time I got out of a barber chair, I'd have to hold on to something to keep from falling, on account of the dizziness. My bowels were constipated; nerves all to pieces; had pains in my back and shoulders, and suffered every day with gas in my stomach and indigestion.

"I'm happy to relate I'm a great deal better since taking the new remedy, Dreco. That buzzing, roaring sound in my ears is almost gone. My bowels act freely every day. I have no more dizzy spells to annoy me, and the pains in my back and shoulders are entirely gone. I eat hearty meals and don't have that terrifying gas any longer, and my sleep is sound and refreshing. Dreco has helped me very much, and I gladly recommend it to our citizens."

Dreco, the new root and herb juice remedy has won fame for relieving catarrh of the head and stomach, overcoming kidney weakness, rousing a lazy liver, relieving rheumatism, purifying the blood and banishing constipation.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

Both machines were damaged but no one was injured when the Ford touring car belonging to H. H. Conklin of this city and driven by his grandson, Arthur Bales, collided with a machine owned and driven by William Fudge, of east of town, on the Jamestown pike at six o'clock Thursday evening.

The Conklin machine was coming towards Xenia and the Fudge car was traveling away from town, when the machines did not allow enough leeway for each other and collided head-on. Both machines were badly damaged, one wheel of the Conklin machine being knocked off and another smashed. Mr. and Mrs. Conklin and Mr. Bales were brought to Xenia in the machine of Dr. R. L. Moye.

The NEW EDISON

No Need to Change—Even Records of All Other Makes Sound More Human When Played on The New Edison.

WHEN you think of music—think of RE-CREATION. Let that word "RE-CREATION" burn into your memory. It represents a new standard—a new art in music. It means the imperishable "Re-Creation" in your own home of the living music of the masters—Re-Created with all the fleeting breath of reality.

¶ Don't misunderstand. There is talking machine music—as ordinarily conceived—and there is a wonderful new art—the Re-Creation of Music. In that field the New Edison stands alone—a solitary, dominating figure. Other instruments are made only to reproduce music. The New Edison Re-Creates it. A small distinction in words but a tremendous one in performance.

¶ In thousands of public tests it has been conclusively demonstrated that it is impossible to distinguish which is the New Edison and which is the living voice when the instrument and the artist are heard together. This direct comparison test is one test that no other phonograph manufacturer dares to make.

¶ Close your eyes and the record in your home is the living artist singing. It is wonderful. It is true Re-Creation of music. Come and hear the art of the New Edison. It will be a revelation to you.

¶ There is a wide range of Edison models. There is one to meet your need. Come and ask to hear it.

¶ Miss Elsie De Wolfe, America's foremost interior decorator, after examining the new line of Edison Period Cabinets volunteered this unqualified endorsement of them:

"The Period Cabinets which Mr. Edison has adopted are in pleasant contrast to the rather grotesque cases one so frequently sees—the superior furniture value of the Edison cabinets can scarcely fail to impress the lover of good furniture."

And they will impress you. So come in today and see these beautiful cabinets—hear the marvelous music Re-Creations. Both will delight and surprise you.

NEW AUTO OWNED BY
C. A. WEAVER NEARLY
DESTROYED BY FIRE

Defective connection in the starting system is supposed to have caused a fire which might have destroyed the new sporting model Paige car belonging to C. A. Weaver, on Detroit street, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher were in the car when they noted the flames leaping up under the floor boards. A fire extinguisher was hastily carried from the office of the Gazette and Republican and taken in charge by Fred Balder, who happened near, and who subdued the flames in a few minutes with the extinguisher.

The starting system was ruined so that the car had to be pushed to a garage, but it was not otherwise damaged. The blaze broke out as the machine was in front of the Gazette and Republican office about eight o'clock. Mr. Weaver has had the car only a few days.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

"I entered a train and all of the seats were taken except one, and some one had left a handbag in that seat. Had I a right to remove the bag and take the seat?" asked Walter.

"Yes, you have a right to do so, but most people who respect the prior claims of others would regard the seat as taken," answered his older brother.

AUTO WOULDN'T RUN AND WOULD-BE THIEVES ABANDON IT

Inability to start the engine, is believed to have caused the abandonment of a Ford delivery car belonging to Charles Scott and stolen from the garage in the rear of his home on East Main street some time Thursday night. The machine was found standing on Columbus street between Market and Church early Friday morning. The car thieves forced an entrance to the garage and ignored a Mitchell chummy roadster and a Buick Six in the garage, taking the Ford. Neighbors say they heard a noise of someone trying to start a machine at two o'clock Friday morning. The Ford is hard to start and it is believed that it was pushed to the point where it was found, and when it would not start the thieves abandoned it.

The matter was reported to the police by Mr. Scott Friday morning.

BLAMES THE WOMEN

Chicago, Aug. 22.—It's the fault of the skirts," indignantly declared Mrs. George Rasmussen, commenting this morning on the arrest of her husband, wealthy head of the George Rasmussen Tea Company, on the charge of being a "masher."

"I'm for my husband and I'm for the other men of Chicago. I can't blame them for looking at the girls with short skirts and everything like that. It's entirely the fault of the women. They make the men flirt."

When notified of her husband's arrest last night, Mrs. Rasmussen immediately prepared to arrange for his bail, but one of his male friends got to the Clark street police station first and secured Rasmussen's release. The maid of a striking actress was the complainant in the case, which, it was stated today, would be dropped.

.Consider Your Children.

NORMALLY IT IS THE CHILDREN that count. They are the mainspring of adult existence. Upon them rests the burden of the future with all its glorious opportunities. The biggest problem of all is to properly equip them to successfully shoulder the responsibility to the end that life may hold a fair measure of enjoyment for them.

THE HOME OFTEN MAKES OR MARS THE CHILD. Environment moulds character in the young. Habits of neatness thrive best where POSSESSION reigns. THRIFT takes root and flourishes where economy rules. REFINEMENT becomes the habit of life in an atmosphere of the joint independence of personal possession.

LOOK AT THE PICTURE. It tells the whole story. The neat premises, kept so through the very pride of ownership. The mother at the door. The child, hurrying in glad welcome to the father who views with sub-conscious pride THE HOME OF HIS OWN.

IT'S WORTH THINKING ABOUT. It's worth struggling for. It more often than not means sacrifice in the beginning BUT IT'S WORTH SACRIFICE, paying golden dividends of content.

TAKE THIS SERIOUSLY TO HEART AND THINK ABOUT IT. Try to realize if you can what a wonderful measure of good will come to your children if you provide for them a HOME OF THEIR VERY OWN. Give them a chance.

TOMORROW NEVER COMES. If it is right to begin at all the time is now. Building materials cannot decline in cost soon. Precedent, as determined by the Civil War, show there to have been no lowering of costs in this regard for thirteen years. Home sites will never be any cheaper than NOW.

It is in all sincerity that we, as Building Material Dealers, lay these facts before you. We sell Lumber. Our facilities are of the best in this entire community. We can furnish you everything you need to build this Home of Your Own---and we urge you to act now for the reason that we believe in so doing you will save money.
